Personal Statement

Northwood takes great pride in providing a personalized educational and training experience for its students. The reason such a high percentage of our students have academic success and enjoy collegiate life at Northwood is the good atmosphere and attitudes shared by faculty and classmates for successful learning. So that we can more effectively counsel you to make certain that the Northwood experience will be successful for you, please take a moment to tell us about yourself. Feel free to tell us about any hobbies, special interests, activities, work experience, or travels you enjoy.

If there are special circumstances or concerns affecting your application of which you think we should be aware, please elaborate.

As part of the admissions process, we require applicants to respond to the following questions. Information provided in response to these questions needs to be reviewed, but does not automatically result in denial of admissions.

- a. Have you ever been suspended from another college or university? Yes No
- b. Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offense (including juvenile court) other than a minor traffic violation, or are there criminal charges pending against you at this time? Yes No

If you answer yes to either of these questions, please provide an explanation on a separate sheet and attach to completed application.

I understand that newly accepted students are expected to participate in college orientation and that adherence to the policies and regulations of Northwood is a stipulation of my admission and enrollment as a student.
